Account balances are rounded to the nearest dollar and are the balances at the time your original statement was produced. Loan balances are not included.

Take care of the ones you love

Review your participant account beneficiaries today
- It's important to set aside time to verify that your beneficiary information is current and accurate.

Ensure that your wishes are followed
- Review your account today to verify the accuracy of your current beneficiary information on file.

Please keep in mind that after significant life events, such as marriage, divorce or the birth of a child, you should always update your beneficiary information.

Keep your retirement plan on track
After confirming your beneficiaries, take time to review your retirement account:
- Take note of your potential monthly income in retirement
- Set or revisit your retirement goals
- Evaluate your investment strategy
- Consider increasing your contributions

Log into your account to download and complete a Participant Action form, or contact our solutions center (1-800-949-4457) to request a form to update your beneficiary election today.

Disclosures

Fee disclosures

The Standardized illustration represents performance based on a $10,000 hypothetical investment, and reflects the deduction of the following fees:

Gross expense ratios represent the fund's total operating expenses expressed as a percentage of the assets held in the fund. For more information about gross expense ratios, read the fund's prospectus.

Some mutual funds may impose a short term trade fee. Some funds may be subject to a trade restriction policy. Please read the underlying prospectus carefully.

a) These funds are not open to new participants.

b) These funds are designed to provide diversification and asset allocation across several types of investments and asset classes, primarily by investing in underlying funds. Therefore, in addition to the fund's expenses, you are indirectly paying a proportionate share of the applicable fees and expenses of the underlying funds.

Risk disclosures

Government Money Market Funds: The Fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The Fund is open to all investors. Although the Fund seeks to preserve the value of the investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. You could lose money by investing in the Fund. The Fund may impose a fee upon sale of shares or temporarily suspend the ability to sell shares if the Fund's liquidity falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors. The Fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the Fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the Fund at any time. The Fund may invest in shares of other government money market mutual funds, including those advised by the Fund's subadviser, to provide additional liquidity or to achieve higher yields. Please refer to the most recent prospectus for a more detailed description of the Fund's principal risks.

International/emerging markets funds: Funds that invest in international stocks face risks that funds investing only in U.S. stocks do not. Currency fluctuation, political risk, differences in accounting standards and the limited availability of information may make these funds less stable.

Small company funds: Small and emerging companies may have less liquidity than larger, established companies. Therefore, funds investing in stocks of small or emerging companies may face greater price volatility and risk.

High-yield bond funds: Funds that invest in high-yield securities may have more credit risk and changes in price than funds that invest in higher-quality securities.

Non-diversified funds: Funds that invest in a single industry or small number of securities may be more volatile than those that invest more broadly.

Government bond funds: These funds invest mainly in securities of the U.S. government and its agencies; however, these entities do not guarantee the value of the funds.

Real estate funds: Funds that invest mainly in real estate are sensitive to economic and business cycles, changing demographic patterns and government actions.

Important disclosures

"Inception Date" is the date the fund was established. The "Since Inception" column contains performance for the funds if the Inception Date was before the time period indicated.

Performance numbers in the "3 Month" column are not annualized returns and represent the total percentage change in share value for the time period indicated.
