Important Information about Pricing, Valuations, Estimated Annual Income and Estimated Yield

Market value information (including without limitation, prices, exchange rates, accrued income and bond ratings) furnished herein, some of which has been provided by pricing sources that J.P. Morgan believes to be reliable, is not guaranteed for accuracy but provided for informational purposes and is furnished for your exclusive use.

The current price is the value of the financial asset share, unit or contract as priced at the close of the market on the last day of the statement period or the last available price. All values provided for structured yield deposits reflect the original deposit amount only. The value for Real Estate, Mineral Interests and Miscellaneous Assets may not reflect the most current value of the asset. Values for oil, gas and mineral interests are calculated annually as three (3) times the net income received into the account from producing interests during the twelve (12) months preceding the value date. Non-producing interests are reflected at a nominal value. These values do not reflect the fair market value of the interests as they do not consider, including but not limited to, reserves, well depth, drilling activity, location or commodity prices.

The values in this statement are shown in USD. If your investment currency is not USD, please be aware that the value of your return could differ positively or negatively due to exchange fluctuations from the value shown in this statement.

Valuations of over-the-counter derivative transactions, including certain derivatives-related deposit products, have been prepared on a mid-market basis. These valuations are sourced from the various issuers of the securities or they are sourced from a third party valuation provider. J.P. Morgan expressly disclaims any responsibility for (1) the accuracy of the models or estimates used in deriving the valuations, (2) any errors or omissions in computing or disseminating the valuations, and (3) any uses to which the valuations are put. Valuations are provided for informational purposes only and are intended solely for your own use. Please refer to the trade confirmation for details of each transaction.

Certain assets, including but not limited to, pooled and private investments, non-publicly traded and infrequently traded securities, derivatives, partnership interests and tangible assets are generally illiquid; the value of such asset may have been provided to us by third parties who may or may not be independent of the issuer or manager. Such information is reflected as of the last date provided to us, and is not independently verified.

J.P. Morgan makes no representation, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, that any quoted value represents the actual terms at which securities could be bought or sold or new transactions could be entered into, or the actual terms on which existing transactions or securities could be liquidated. Such values may only be indicative.

If a partial call is made with respect to an issue of securities included in your Accounts we will allocate the call by a method we deem fair and equitable.

CERTAIN DEFINED TERMS THAT MAY APPEAR IN YOUR STATEMENT

EAI: Estimated Annual Income. Actual income could be lower or higher than the estimated amount. Certain types of securities could include a return of principal or capital gains, in which case the EAI would be overstated.

EY: Estimated Yield. EY reflects only the estimated yield generated by an investment and does not reflect changes in its price, which may fluctuate. Actual yield could be lower or higher than the estimated amount. Certain types of securities could include a return of principal or capital gains, in which case the EY would be overstated.

Unpriced: If we are unable to obtain a current market value from an internal or external source for a particular security, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced." Although such securities may have value, please note that the value of a security indicated as "unpriced" will not be included in your overall current market value as reflected on the statement.

Please see below for additional defined terms related to assets not held at J.P. Morgan.

Offshore Deposits

Deposits of non-U.S. dollar funds will be held in accounts at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMCB") outside of the United States. Under federal law, deposits that are maintained outside of the United States, including in any JPMCB branch located outside of the United States, are not insured by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other agency of the U.S. Federal Government; are subject to cross-border risks; and enjoy a lesser preference, as compared to deposits held in the United States, in the event JPMCB should be liquidated, become insolvent or be placed into receivership or be subject to other proceedings for the benefit of creditors. Certain of these Foreign Accounts may be considered reportable to the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) on Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FinCEN Form 114).

JPMCB's London Branch is a participant in the UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme (the "FSCS"), and the following terms apply to the extent any of your cash deposits are held at the London Branch. The terms of the FSCS offer protection in connection with deposits to certain types of claimants in the event that they suffer a financial loss as a direct consequence of the London Branch being unable to meet any of its obligations and, subject to the FSCS rules regarding eligible deposits, you may have a right to claim compensation from the FSCS. Subject to the FSCS rules, the maximum compensation payable by the FSCS in relation to eligible deposits is as set out in the relevant information sheet, which is available online as referenced below. For the purposes of establishing such maximum compensation, all your eligible deposits at the London Branch are aggregated and the total is subject to such maximum compensation. For further information about the compensation provided by the FSCS, refer to the FSCS website at www.FSCS.org.uk. Further information is also available online at <http://www.jpmorgan.com/pages/deposit-guarantee-scheme-directive>.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING CALLABLE SECURITIES

To the extent J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS LLC) holds on behalf of any introduced customer account securities which, by their terms, may be called or redeemed prior to maturity ("callable securities") and a partial call or redemption involving such securities occurs, the following procedures will be followed: JPMS LLC will generally administer the partial call or redemption via an impartial lottery system by which it will allocate among its introduced customers the securities to be selected as called or redeemed. In the event the call or redemption is deemed to be on terms favorable to the applicable holder as determined by JPMS LLC, JPMS LLC shall not allocate the securities to any account in which it or its associated persons (or the associated persons of its introducing brokers, to the extent those accounts have been identified to JPMS LLC by the introducing broker, generally, "associated persons") have an interest until all other customers' positions in such securities have been satisfied. In the event the call or redemption is deemed to be on terms unfavorable to the applicable holder, as determined by JPMS LLC, the accounts of customers and associated persons will participate in the impartial lottery on equal terms. See https://www.jpmorgan.com/country/US/EN/disclosures/callable_securities. This information supersedes any prior or inconsistent terms relating to callable securities in your account.

Money Market Sweep Fund

Funds that are to be invested in a Money Market Sweep Fund will be held in a single consolidated JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. account overnight and invested in the designated Money Market Sweep Fund on the morning of the next business day. In the event of a failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. on the day that the balances are swept from the beneficial owner's account to the single consolidated JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. account, the balances will be considered deposits by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and will be insured by the FDIC under its applicable insurance rules and limits. However, if JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. were to fail on the next business day, when the balances are invested in the Money Market Sweep Fund, the balance will not be considered deposits by the FDIC, and the beneficial owner's swept balances will be treated in one of two ways: (i) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s assets were transferred to an acquiring institution, the swept balances will be available to be returned back into the client's account on the business day following the failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.; or (ii) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. will be dissolved, the client will receive a check or other payment from the FDIC for the value of the client's allotted interest in the Money Market Sweep Fund in accordance with FDIC's normal procedures.

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION APPLICABLE ONLY TO YOUR ASSET ACCOUNT(S) (LINKED TO JPMS)

Your Asset Account consists of a bank account that custodies assets.

You must promptly advise your J.P.Morgan team of material changes in your investment objectives or financial situation or if you wish to modify the management of your account. Unless you inform otherwise, your J.P.Morgan team will consider the information currently in its files to be complete and accurate.

Special Notice for DPP and REIT Securities: DPP or REIT securities are not listed on a national securities exchange, are generally illiquid and, even if a customer is able to sell the securities, the price received may be less than the per share estimated value provided in the account statement. Where "net investment" per share estimated value for a DPP or REIT security is presented, please note that part of your distribution includes a return of capital. Any distribution that represents a return of capital reduces the estimated per share value shown on your account statement.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT AUTOMATIC REINVESTMENTS IN YOUR MARGIN ACCOUNT

Automatic Reinvestment transactions excluding those conducted by DTC or in open ended mutual funds are processed by J.P. Morgan Securities LLC on an agency basis.

Please contact your J.P. Morgan Client Service team if you own more than 5% of a publicly traded Regulated Investment Company ("RIC"), or more than 10% of a publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trust ("REIT") in the aggregate at both J.P. Morgan and other financial institutions that hold the same publicly traded RIC or REIT on your behalf, as there may be potential U.S. tax consequences relating to your investment. If you do not contact us, J.P. Morgan will deem you to hold a minority interest of less than 5% or 10% in either the publicly traded RIC or REIT, respectively.

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and its affiliates (collectively "JPMCB") offer investment products, which may include bank-managed accounts and custody, as part of its trust and fiduciary services. Other investment products and services, such as brokerage and advisory accounts, are offered through J.P. Morgan Securities LLC ("JPMS"), a member of FINRA and SIPC. This account summary is provided for your convenience and includes assets that may not be held by JP Morgan Securities, LLC.

Important Information about Pricing, Valuations, Estimated Annual Income and Estimated Yield

Market value information (including without limitation, prices, exchange rates, accrued income and bond ratings) furnished herein, some of which has been provided by pricing sources that J.P. Morgan believes to be reliable, is not guaranteed for accuracy but provided for informational purposes and is furnished for your exclusive use.

The current price is the value of the financial asset share, unit or contract as priced at the close of the market on the last day of the statement period or the last available price. All values provided for structured yield deposits reflect the original deposit amount only. The value for Real Estate, Mineral Interests and Miscellaneous Assets may not reflect the most current value of the asset. Values for oil, gas and mineral interests are calculated annually as three (3) times the net income received into the account from producing interests during the twelve (12) months preceding the value date. Non-producing interests are reflected at a nominal value. These values do not reflect the fair market value of the interests as they do not consider, including but not limited to, reserves, well depth, drilling activity, location or commodity prices.

The values in this statement are shown in USD. If your investment currency is not USD, please be aware that the value of your return could differ positively or negatively due to exchange fluctuations from the value shown in this statement.

Valuations of over-the-counter derivative transactions, including certain derivatives-related deposit products, have been prepared on a mid-market basis. These valuations are sourced from the various issuers of the securities or they are sourced from a third party valuation provider. J.P. Morgan expressly disclaims any responsibility for (1) the accuracy of the models or estimates used in deriving the valuations, (2) any errors or omissions in computing or disseminating the valuations, and (3) any uses to which the valuations are put. Valuations are provided for informational purposes only and are intended solely for your own use. Please refer to the trade confirmation for details of each transaction.

Certain assets, including but not limited to, pooled and private investments, non-publicly traded and infrequently traded securities, derivatives, partnership interests and tangible assets are generally illiquid; the value of such asset may have been provided to us by third parties who may or may not be independent of the issuer or manager. Such information is reflected as of the last date provided to us, and is not independently verified.

J.P. Morgan makes no representation, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, that any quoted value represents the actual terms at which securities could be bought or sold or new transactions could be entered into, or the actual terms on which existing transactions or securities could be liquidated. Such values may only be indicative.

If a partial call is made with respect to an issue of securities included in your Accounts we will allocate the call by a method we deem fair and equitable.

CERTAIN DEFINED TERMS THAT MAY APPEAR IN YOUR STATEMENT

EAI: Estimated Annual Income. Actual income could be lower or higher than the estimated amount. Certain types of securities could include a return of principal or capital gains, in which case the EAI would be overstated.

EY: Estimated Yield. EY reflects only the estimated yield generated by an investment and does not reflect changes in its price, which may fluctuate. Actual yield could be lower or higher than the estimated amount. Certain types of securities could include a return of principal or capital gains, in which case the EY would be overstated.

Unpriced: If we are unable to obtain a current market value from an internal or external source for a particular security, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced." Although such securities may have value, please note that the value of a security indicated as "unpriced" will not be included in your overall current market value as reflected on the statement.

Please see below for additional defined terms related to assets not held at J.P. Morgan.

Offshore Deposits

Deposits of non-U.S. dollar funds will be held in accounts at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMCB") outside of the United States. Under federal law, deposits that are maintained outside of the United States, including in any JPMCB branch located outside of the United States, are not insured by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other agency of the U.S. Federal Government; are subject to cross-border risks; and enjoy a lesser preference, as compared to deposits held in the United States, in the event JPMCB should be liquidated, become insolvent or be placed into receivership or be subject to other proceedings for the benefit of creditors. Certain of these Foreign Accounts may be considered reportable to the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) on Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FinCEN Form 114).

JPMCB's London Branch is a participant in the UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme (the "FSCS"), and the following terms apply to the extent any of your cash deposits are held at the London Branch. The terms of the FSCS offer protection in connection with deposits to certain types of claimants in the event that they suffer a financial loss as a direct consequence of the London Branch being unable to meet any of its obligations and, subject to the FSCS rules regarding eligible deposits, you may have a right to claim compensation from the FSCS. Subject to the FSCS rules, the maximum compensation payable by the FSCS in relation to eligible deposits is as set out in the relevant information sheet, which is available online as referenced below. For the purposes of establishing such maximum compensation, all your eligible deposits at the London Branch are aggregated and the total is subject to such maximum compensation. For further information about the compensation provided by the FSCS, refer to the FSCS website at www.FSCS.org.uk. Further information is also available online at <http://www.jpmorgan.com/pages/deposit-guarantee-scheme-directive>.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING CALLABLE SECURITIES

To the extent J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS LLC) holds on behalf of any introduced customer account securities which, by their terms, may be called or redeemed prior to maturity ("callable securities") and a partial call or redemption involving such securities occurs, the following procedures will be followed: JPMS LLC will generally administer the partial call or redemption via an impartial lottery system by which it will allocate among its introduced customers the securities to be selected as called or redeemed. In the event the call or redemption is deemed to be on terms favorable to the applicable holder as determined by JPMS LLC, JPMS LLC shall not allocate the securities to any account in which it or its associated persons (or the associated persons of its introducing brokers, to the extent those accounts have been identified to JPMS LLC by the introducing broker, generally, "associated persons") have an interest until all other customers' positions in such securities have been satisfied. In the event the call or redemption is deemed to be on terms unfavorable to the applicable holder, as determined by JPMS LLC, the accounts of customers and associated persons will participate in the impartial lottery on equal terms. In the event of a failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. on the day that the balances are swept from the beneficial owner's account to the single consolidated JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. account, the balances will be considered deposits by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and will be insured by the FDIC under its applicable insurance rules and limits. However, if JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. were to fail on the next business day, when the balances are invested in the Money Market Sweep Fund, the balance will not be considered deposits by the FDIC, and the beneficial owner's swept balances will be treated in one of two ways: (i) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s assets were transferred to an acquiring institution, the swept balances will be available to be returned back into the client's account on the business day following the failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.; or (ii) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. will be dissolved, the client will receive a check or other payment from the FDIC for the value of the client's allotted interest in the Money Market Sweep Fund in accordance with FDIC's normal procedures.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT MUTUAL FUNDS AND EXCHANGE-TRADED FUNDS REGISTERED UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED ("REGISTERED FUNDS")

(i) J.P. Morgan Funds - Management Fees J.P. Morgan or its affiliates may be sponsors or managers of Registered Funds ("J.P. Morgan Funds") that are purchased for the Client's Portfolio. In such case, J.P. Morgan or its affiliates may receive a fee for managing the J.P. Morgan Funds. As such, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates will receive more total revenue when the Client's Portfolio is invested in J.P. Morgan Funds than when it is invested in third-party funds.

(ii) J.P. Morgan Funds and Third Party Funds - Other Fees & Expenses All Registered Funds have various internal fees and other expenses that are paid by managers or issuers of the Registered Funds or by the Registered Fund itself, but that ultimately are borne by the investor. J.P. Morgan may receive administrative, servicing and other fees for providing services to both J.P. Morgan Funds and third-party Registered Funds that are held in the Client's Portfolio. These payments may be made by sponsors of Registered Funds (including affiliates of J.P. Morgan) or by the Registered Funds themselves, and may be based on the value of the Registered Funds in the Client's Portfolio. Registered Funds or their sponsors may have other business relationships with J.P. Morgan outside of its portfolio management role or with the broker-dealer affiliates of J.P. Morgan, which may provide brokerage or other services that pay commissions, fees and other compensation.

(iii) Six Circles Funds The Six Circles Funds are Registered Funds specifically designed by J.P. Morgan for use in discretionary accounts as completion funds to align with J.P. Morgan's core portfolio views. A J.P. Morgan affiliate acts as investment advisor to the Six Circles Funds and engages third-party investment managers as sub-advisors to the Funds' investment portfolios. J.P. Morgan may experience certain benefits and efficiencies from investing account assets in the Six Circles Funds instead of unaffiliated investment vehicles; however, J.P. Morgan does not retain investment advisory fees for managing the Six Circles Funds through an agreement to waive any investment advisory fees that exceed the fees owed to the Six Circles Funds' third-party sub-advisors. The Six Circles Funds do not pay fees to J.P. Morgan for any other services to the Six Circles Funds. Services are provided by third-party service providers and are generally paid by the Six Circles Funds or J.P. Morgan. (Note that the market value of assets invested in the Six Circles Funds will be included in calculating the advisory fees paid on the overall Portfolio.)

IRA Account Withholding Notice

IRA withdrawals you are currently receiving, or plan on receiving in the future, are subject to Federal Income Tax Withholding at a mandatory rate of 10%, unless you elect not to have withholding apply, or you elect to withhold a percentage other than 10%. You may also be subject to State Withholding. Your existing elections for recurring payments, if any, remain in effect unless you change them in writing. You may revoke or change your elections at any time by obtaining and completing a J.P. Morgan IRA Distribution Request. This form is available from your J.P. Morgan team. U.S. citizens or resident aliens may not opt out of the 10% mandatory withholding on any distributions delivered outside the U.S. or its possessions. If you elect not to have taxes withheld you will be liable for all taxes due on the taxable portion of your distribution. Further, if you elect not to have withholding apply to your distribution payments or if you do not have enough Federal income tax withheld from your distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may be liable for penalties and interest related to underpayment of estimated taxes if withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. You are encouraged to contact your tax advisor to discuss your withdrawal options and how your withholding elections might affect your personal taxation.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING REQUIRED MINIMUM DISTRIBUTIONS

As you are age 73 or older on or after January 1, 2024, the Internal Revenue Service requires that you take a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) annually from your Traditional, SEP or SIMPLE IRAs. You may also be required to take an RMD if you received assets in an Inherited IRA.

What you should know

- Traditional, SEP and SIMPLE IRAs
 - Your first RMD(s) must be taken by April 1 of the year following the year in which you turn 73. Otherwise, RMDs must be taken annually by December 31.
 - If you choose to wait until the year after you turn 73 to take your first RMD(s), you will still need to take your annual RMD for that year by December 31. This means you will need to meet two RMD obligations in one year.
 - We are required to notify the IRS that you need to take an RMD for 2024.
- Inherited IRAs
 - If you have an Inherited IRA, IRS RMD rules also apply to you. As a result, you may need to take a distribution annually by December 31.
- Failure to meet your RMD obligations may result in a 25% excise tax, or 10% if corrected during a two year correction window on the amount not distributed.
- If you own more than one Traditional, SEP or SIMPLE IRA, we will calculate the RMD separately for each IRA, but you can withdraw the total amount of your RMD obligations for these IRAs from any one or more of these IRAs. However, this approach cannot be used for all types of IRAs. Inherited IRAs as well as other types of tax-qualified retirement accounts follow different rules that require their RMDs to be calculated and taken separately.
- You may have to pay income taxes on your RMD withdrawals.
- While we provide your RMD amount as a courtesy, you are ultimately responsible for determining what your RMD is each year and for withdrawing the full amount by your applicable due date.
- We recommend that you consult with a tax or legal professional, as we cannot provide tax or legal advice.

How RMDs are calculated

- The "RMD amount" shown in the "Retirement Contribution & Distribution Summary" section of your account statement is calculated using the IRS's Life Expectancy Tables, which provide "distribution periods" based on age. The value of your account at the end of the prior year is divided by the applicable distribution period to determine your RMD amount. The RMD amount is also included in your tax information package sent each year by January 31.
- For original IRA owners, the RMD is calculated using the IRS's Uniform Lifetime Table, which provides "distribution periods" based on age. The only exception to this calculation is if your spouse is your sole beneficiary and more than 10 years younger than you; in this case, we can use the IRS's Joint Life and Last Survivor Expectancy Table at your request.
- If you have received assets in an Inherited IRA, the RMD is calculated using the IRS's Single Life Expectancy Table, which provides "distribution periods" based on age. Since Inherited IRA RMD calculation rules can be complex, please consult your tax and legal professionals regarding the amount that may need to be distributed in order to satisfy your RMD, if any.
- Please contact us for details regarding your specific calculation.

Please note:

- This RMD amount does not take into account any:
 - Distributions you have already taken this year;

For the Period 12/1/24 to 12/31/24

- Other IRAs you may have;
 - Rollovers, transfers or failed conversions that were outstanding at the end of last year; and
 - Unpriced positions held in your account.
- If we were not your IRA custodian on the last business day of the prior year, or if your account is new, even though you may be required to take an RMD, we are unable to calculate your RMD without additional information from you.
- If for any reason the RMD amount does not appear on your statement, or if you would like us to recalculate the amount, we will provide you with a calculation of the amount for the calendar year upon your request. We may need additional information in order to perform the calculation.

How to request a distribution

To request a distribution, please contact your J.P. Morgan team.

J.P. Morgan and its affiliates and employees do not provide tax, legal or accounting advice. You should consult your own tax, legal and accounting advisors before engaging in any financial transactions.

Special Notice for DPP and REIT Securities: DPP or REIT securities are not listed on a national securities exchange, are generally illiquid and, even if a customer is able to sell the securities, the price received may be less than the per share estimated value provided in the account statement. Where "net investment" per share estimated value for a DPP or REIT security is presented, please note that part of your distribution includes a return of capital. Any distribution that represents a return of capital reduces the estimated per share value shown on your account statement.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT AUTOMATIC REINVESTMENTS IN YOUR MARGIN ACCOUNT

Automatic Reinvestment transactions excluding those conducted by DTC or in open ended mutual funds are processed by J.P. Morgan Securities LLC on an agency basis.

Please contact your J.P. Morgan Client Service team if you own more than 5% of a publicly traded Regulated Investment Company ("RIC"), or more than 10% of a publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trust ("REIT") in the aggregate at both J.P. Morgan and other financial institutions that hold the same publicly traded RIC or REIT on your behalf, as there may be potential U.S. tax consequences relating to your investment. If you do not contact us, J.P. Morgan will deem you to hold a minority interest of less than 5% or 10% in either the publicly traded RIC or REIT, respectively.
