2022 Form 6 – Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests

Judge Robert T. Watson

Addendum Regarding “Gain” from Sale of Property in Primary Income Section

As required, I have disclosed the amount of “gain” from the sale of property (a condominium unit) in 2022. The amount listed ($60,000) represents the difference between the sale price ($315,000) and purchase price ($255,000). It does not, however, take into account the cost of home improvements, which need to be added to the cost basis and will result in a reduced gain amount. At this time, those amounts have not yet been determined. I requested a six-month extension of the April 2023 federal tax return filing deadline for this purpose and have not yet determined those figures. Because of the July filing deadline for this disclosure, I am using a gain figure which exceeds the actual gain figure.
