Amendment Reason

Explanation of changes why are you amending your previous form 6 submission?

In review of my previously submitted form, I found a glitch in the software causing my prior filing to erroneously not include my home residence - the only piece of real property I own. I had entered the information about the house under REAL PROPERTY, then moved on to the intangible property section. When I imported the data from last years' form into the matrix for intangible property, it included the real property which I had already included on the page before under REAL PROPERTY, so I removed it from the intangible property section. Apparently this erased the real property from the entire form, so only after e-filing the document did I notice that my residence was not included amongst the disclosed assets, so I have filed this amendment to make sure the same reflects my owning my house. There are no other changes to any values on the form.
