Amendment Reason

Explanation of changes why are you amending your previous form 6 submission?

On April 6th 2025 I amended information regarding my Truist Investment accounts in the asset section and amended my net worth increasing it by $430.59. I also amended the income section by adding dividend income from the Truist Investment funds. I was not deleting other information previously provided. The information as to the Truist funds and to the income section, the dividend income and the information as to income I wrote about in the Amendment Reason section were the changes I was making. The asset information that was previously in Form 6 and the amendments and other information still applies. Per the instructions, as I understood them they did not need to be readdressed or re-listed. I want to be clear they still apply as does other information not addressed in the amendment of April 6th. Additionally when the amended form for April 6th printed it said N/A as to household goods and personal effects. I had previously listed that as $90,000.00. I have re-listed it in this amendment form to be clear.

Signature of Reporting Official or Candidate
